Dave,

Thank you for the congratulatory email. Yes, it was announced on Monday. I'm looking forward to new responsibilities, but glad I will still be overseeing (albeit at a bit higher level) all the programs I've historically worked on as well.

I will look at the handbook proposal and share any thoughts I have with you.

-Renee

- A. Congratulations on your well deserved promotion! I hope I'm not being premature on that... Mumley mentioned you got it!
- B. Here's a rough draft Stormwater Program Development Handbook proposal. We're getting moving on this and Tom and I have been discussing how to make it relevant to CA and help it align with work by Annalisa's group, CASQA, and others. Your thoughts would be appreciated!

Dave
